PRAISE THE PARKING LOT SUNDAY, MAY 2ND

Because we miss worshiping with you in person AND to keep everyone safe and healthy until the pandemic has eased up a little more, we want to meet with you on the parking lot again for church service Sunday, May 2nd at 10am. We will enjoy a time of worship, Lord's Supper and a wonderful message from our Senior Pastor, Rev. Wm. Dwight McKissic, Sr.

This service is very limited in the number of people who can attend AND you MUST bring your own chairs because we are ALL sitting in the parking lot. We will have an extremely limited number of parking spaces for those with serious health conditions who can't afford to be in a public crowd at this time. All spaces are based on a first complete, first filled basis.

We are moving to the south side of the church in the front parking lot for a more intimate worship experience WITH PLENTY of social distancing for everyone. You must register for the service and when the spaces fill up, we will close the online registration.

Make plans, register and join us for PRAISE IN THE PARKING LOT – Sunday, May 2nd at 10AM.
