WOMEN'S E CLOTHING/TOY DRIVE PROJECT

As a Love Offering Project, Women's E members will partner with Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex to provide clothing and toys for families in our community. Because of the impact of COVID-19, the organization's supplies are at an all-time low while the need for these items are at an all-time high. To help resolve this issue, Women's E members will host a Clothing Drive with all proceeds benefiting the organization.

Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex provided this list of "immediate needs." Please be sure items are gentlyworn, clean, and something you would wear. It would be helpful if larger items are on hangers, i.e. coats, suits, dresses, etc.

This month we will read "The Jacket", by Andrew Clements; Fiction, 89 pages Book Snippet: "When Phil spies Daniel, an African-American schoolmate, wearing a jacket identical to one that his mother bought him in Italy, a problem arises..."

What Happens Next You Ask?

This is a pilot program that we pray will interest our children so much that they will be eager to participate and enjoy reading even more while having lots of fun and fellowship.

To sign up for this date send an email to Vannessa Heatley at vheatley@cbcarlingon.org for all of the Zoom and book details.
